

Do Not Overturn this ruling/law that prohibits telemarketers from calling my home. The very fact that so many people have signed the do not call list is perfectly evident that they don't want these telemarketers invading their homes, at any time of the day or night. I for one don't want these calls to my home ever again.